Services/Programs: (free of charge)

Family Law Project assists clients in understanding the following types of forms: dissolution, legal separation, order to show cause (for custody and visitation issues only) and paternity. The program also provides information regarding, summary dissolutions and other family law issues.

Women’s Law Project assists men, women and families with civil harassment and domestic violence restraining orders. Information is available for a variety of domestic violence situations.

Chico Consumer Protection Agency (CCPA) assists clients by answering questions in the following areas of Consumer Law: fair debt collection, bad checks, contracts, bankruptcy, credit cards, Lemon Laws, warranties, small claims court, collection after judgment, credit reports/repairs, assisting in starting small businesses and liens.

Workers’ Rights Program informs employees and employers about their legal rights and responsibilities. The WRP primarily deals with information concerning unemployment and state disability insurance, wrongful termination, sexual harassment, hour and wage disputes, working conditions, and discrimination in the workplace. We are also an advocacy program representing clients at EDD hearings, and labor commission hearings.

Misdemeanors, Tickets and Traffic (MTT) Assists with all traffic-related violations such as speeding, parking or running stoplights/signs. Traffic interns also provide assistance with DUI’s, noise violations, MIP’s, fake or altered I.D.’s and any other alcohol related violations.

Housing Law Project assists both tenant and landlords. CLIC’s Housing Law interns also answer questions relating to tenants’ rights and responsibilities. Some of the most common problems that are encountered are evictions, defective or inhabitable dwellings, and security deposit refunds.

Disabled and the Law (D&L) is an advocacy program that represents physically and/or mentally disabled clients at Federal Administrative hearings for the Social Security Administration. We deal mainly with Title II: Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) and Title XVI: Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Our goal is to help those who would otherwise be unable to advocate on their own behalf.

Environmental Advocacy (EA) promotes environmental quality through education and advocacy and interns are actively involved in local, regional, and global issues. EA is comprised of interns who share a concern for environmental quality and a willingness to work toward safeguarding the environment.

County Jail Law Project (CJLP) provides information to inmates incarcerated in Butte County Jail. Interns help to provide inmates with the best possible legal information. Interns work directly with the inmates with follow-up research, and contacting them with answers to some of their questions.

Student Legal Services/Juvenile Rights (SLS) assists in informing CSU, Chico students of their rights and responsibilities on campus, as well as acting as their advocates in all campus related areas. These areas include the Formal Grievance Procedure, Student Disciplinary Process, and grade disputes. The Juvenile Rights sector of this program works to educate the youth of the surrounding areas through class talks and direct services.

Public Benefits Advocacy Program (PBAP) provides quality legal information and assists clients at Administrative Law Hearings. We provide assistance to families regarding TANF, Medi-Cal, Cal-Works, County Medical Services Program, Cal-FRESH and General Assistance by efficiently utilizing all available resources. Our focus is to enhance economic stability, safety, health care and serve populations with special vulnerabilities.

Penal Law Project provides legal information on Writs of Habeas Corpus, administrative appeals, Three Strikes cases, sentencing, and any other aspect of criminal law dealing with state prisoners and visits Susanville and other California Department of Corrections (CDCR) institutions.

Program designed to reach out to the Latino and Hmong populations in the East of Eaton and La Vista Verde apartment complexes in Chico as well as the town of Gridley. Goal is to help break cultural barriers such as language, transportation and stigma in order to help these populations access and receive mental health and community resources. Educational groups are held 4 times a month at each of the service areas and home visitation is available.
